 - (6) to elect an Honorary Treasurer in accordance with Clause 45;
- All other business transacted at any general meeting shall be special business.

Lack of Quorum

24. If within half an hour from time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present the meeting if convened on the requisition of members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such other day and such other time and place as the Board determines and notifies to members if required by Clause 26 and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

Chairman of General Meeting

25. The President shall be entitled to preside as Chairman at any general meeting. If the President is not present and willing to act the President Elect shall be entitled to preside. If the President and the President Elect are not present and willing to act the Immediate Past President shall be entitled to preside. If the President, the President Elect and the Immediate Past President are not present and willing to act within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the members of the Board present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting. If no member of the Board be present or if all the members of the Board present decline to take the chair the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

Adjournment of General Meetings

26. The chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. If a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting but otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

VOTING AND POLLS

Voting and Polls

27. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) by at least five members entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy or by a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all members having the right to vote at the meeting and unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the College shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

Poll

28. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken at the meeting at which it is demanded or at an adjournment thereof and in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Lodgement of Proxies

33. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be lodged with the Secretary not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote and in default of lodgement as aforesaid the instrument appointing the proxy shall not be treated as valid.

POSTAL VOTES

Board may direct postal vote

34. Subject to the requirements of the Act as to special resolutions the Board or a general meeting may determine that a poll of members of the College shall be taken by postal vote or by secret postal vote on any proposed resolution or resolutions capable of being passed at a general meeting of members of the College and subject to Clause 35, hereof the Board shall determine the form of the ballot paper to be used in taking such poll and the polling date.

Manner of taking postal votes

35. If it is determined that a poll be taken by postal vote the following provisions shall apply -

- (1) the polling date shall be not less than nine weeks nor more than four months after the making of the determinations provided for in Clause 34 hereof;
- (2) the ballot paper shall contain instructions as to the method of voting and shall provide for voters to mark their votes by making a cross opposite to the word “No” or the word “Yes” appearing in that order after the proposed resolution or in such other manner as the Board considers appropriate;
- (3) the Honorary Secretary shall cause ballot papers to be prepared setting out the proposed resolution and in accordance with this Clause and the determination of the Board;
- (4) not less than five weeks before the polling date the Honorary Secretary shall cause one ballot paper to be forwarded by post to each person entitled to vote. Unless the Board otherwise resolves each ballot paper forwarded to a member shall bear that member’s name and the initials of the Honorary Secretary. In the case of members whose registered address is outside Australia, such ballot papers shall if practicable be forwarded by air mail;
- (5) each voter shall mark his ballot paper in accordance with the instructions thereon, sign it, or the envelope or card (if any) provided for the purpose, and forward it in the envelope (if any) provided for the purpose by post or by personal delivery to the Honorary Secretary at the office of the College registered under the Act so as to reach the office on or before the polling date. No vote shall be valid unless the ballot paper shall be marked and the envelope (if any) signed as aforesaid.

(6) if any question arises as to the validity of any vote it shall be determined by the President and Honorary Secretary and their determination thereon shall be final;

(7) the Honorary Secretary shall mark off the votes received by him against a list of the members and the President and the Honorary Secretary shall count the valid votes;

(8) the proposed resolution shall be deemed to be passed or rejected according to the number of valid votes for and against the resolution. In the event of an equality of votes the passing or rejection of the resolution shall be determined by the President who shall record his determination in the book of proceedings of the College;

(9) the proposed resolution and the number of valid votes respectively for and against shall be entered in the said book of proceedings and signed by the President and Honorary Secretary;

(10) no resolution shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of the non-receipt of any ballot paper by any member or at his registered address or by the College;

(11) any duties required by this Clause to be performed by the President or Honorary Secretary shall in the absence of either of them be performed by the President or Honorary Treasurer respectively.

Secret Postal Ballot

36. Where it has been determined that an election of officers or Board members or a poll of members shall be held by secret postal vote the Board shall determine the manner in which such vote shall be taken in order to ensure its secrecy.

Effect of Postal Vote

37. Any resolution deemed by virtue of Clause 35 to be passed shall subject to the Act and other than in the case of a special resolution have the same effect and operation as if it were a resolution validly passed at a general meeting of members of the College held on the polling date.

38. The provisions of Clauses 39 and 40 shall not apply in respect of any proposed resolution which it has been determined shall be resolved by a poll of members by postal vote under Clause 34.
